

FREE PUBLICATIONS FROM RIGHTS OF WOMEN

Provided with support from:

feminist review | TRUST

Rights of Women is pleased to announce that we have been awarded a grant by the Feminist Review Trust for the distribution of two of our hugely successful publications to organisations and individuals within England and Wales.

From A-Z: A Woman's Guide to the Law

This unique and accessible guide provides women with information on an extensive range of legal topics, from Abduction to Zero Tolerance. This A to Z guide covers different areas of law including: asylum and immigration law; criminal law; discrimination and employment law; the English legal system; family law; housing; human rights law; and welfare and consumer rights.

Pathways to Justice: BMER Women, Violence & the Law

Pathways to Justice is a practical, accessible and empowering guide to the legal rights of Black, Minority Ethnic and Refugee women, including women seeking asylum. Long overdue and the first book of its kind, it provides extensive coverage of issues including forced marriage, female genital mutilation, immigration and asylum, trafficking, child abduction and honour crimes.

Terms and Conditions:

In order to qualify for complimentary copies of the above publications, your organisation must be a voluntary, community or women's sector organisation with an annual income of less than £250,000 that supports Black, Minority Ethnic and Refugee (including Asylum-Seeking women) women who have experienced or are at risk of experiencing violence.

In addition, you will be required to take part in our feedback process which will form a significant part of our report back to the Feminist Review Trust.

Please complete the form and declaration overleaf and return it to Mina Rai along with a copy of your accounts or most recent annual report.

For further queries, please contact Mina Rai on 020 7251 6575/6 or mina@row.org.uk

RIGHTS OF WOMEN

Rights of Women is a well established and expanding not-for-profit organisation committed to informing, educating and empowering women on the law and their legal rights. The organisation runs a free legal advice telephone service for women and produces publications on women's rights. Rights of Women's areas of expertise include family law, relationship breakdown, domestic violence, sexual violence, immigration and asylum and it frequently runs conferences and training programmes on these issues.

YOUR DETAILS

Name.....Occupation/Position.....
Organisation.....
Address.....
.....
Telephone.....Fax.....
Email.....

**Please indicate which publication you would like to order****
(It is possible to order both publications)

From A-Z: a woman's guide to the law

Pathways to Justice: BMER women, violence & the law

Declaration

I _____ of _____ declare that I have fully read the Rights of Women policy for granting complimentary publications. I confirm that I agree to comply with the terms and conditions therein. I attach a copy of _____.

Signed: _____

Dated: _____

Please return this form along with the attached declaration to:
Rights of Women, 52-54 Featherstone Street, London EC1Y 8RT

To order this publication online or to find out more about Rights of Women, please see our website www.rightsofwomen.org.uk

Rights of Women works to attain justice and equality by informing, educating and empowering women on their legal rights.

Industrial and Provident Society No. 23221R