Second edition

The essential guide for women on the law and domestic violence

This extensive, detailed and accessible handbook enables women to obtain protection from violence and abuse under the Family Law Act 1996 Part IV and includes:

- What kinds of injunctions are available
- Who can apply
- Preparing and making an application
- Preparing for the hearing
- Representing yourself in court
- Enforcing the injunction

RIGHTS OF WOMEN

This revised edition of Rights of Women's Domestic Violence DIY Injunction Handbook has been substantially updated to include all relevant changes to the law introduced by the Domestic Violence Crime and Victims Act 2004.

It is essential reading for all women considering applying for this form of protection, and for professionals who offer advice and support to women experiencing domestic violence.

Rights of Women works to attain justice and equality by informing, educating and empowering women on their legal rights.
